

Hampton Roads ASPA Chapter Meeting
8/30/11, 8:30-9:30 a.m.
Minutes

Attendees: Bob Morin, Janet Read, Susan Perry, Cindy Linkenhoker, Charlie Mills, Adale Martin, Celeste Greene, Earl Ford, Rob Kenter, Valerie Walker.

Introduction: Bob Morin welcomed everyone and announced his personal account and ASPA account were merged as Wachovia and Wells Fargo merged. Janet Read noted the accounts are still separated within his new Wells Fargo account.

September: Janet Read said that the registration fee will be $22/person. Menu will include minestrone soup, turkey croissant sandwich, salad, and cookies. The luncheon is limited to 48 attendees.

October: Bob has not done anything for the student forum.

November: Janet has organized the Chesapeake Bay Bridge tour for November 10th from 2:30-5:30. There is no charge. The people will meet at one end of the bridge to minimize cars. The tour will be followed by dinner with preset menu options at a cost of $25 per person. The limit is 20-30 people.

January: Valerie Walker will look into a Monitor Merrimac Bridge tour.

March: This year the format of the meeting will be switched to a professional development event. More to come on this.

May: Kim Smith, Susan Perry, and Celeste Greene will be planning the May Awards Luncheon. They will talk with Pam Gibson and David Mclees for more information on planning. The awards judges will be Earl Ford, Janet Read, Bob Morin, Adale Martin; Celeste Greene will ask Pam Gibson if she will be a judge.

There was no future meeting scheduled. Bob Morin said he will contact everyone for the next meeting.

Adjourned: The meeting was adjourned at 9:30 a.m.
